THE SILVER QUESTION. The following letter from the secretary of the Virginia Democratic Association of Washington explains itself. WASHINGTON, Sept. 14. Messrs. D. O. Haynes & Co., 106 Fulton street, N. Y. Dear Sirs:—Your letter regarding advertising your pharmaceutical journal has just been received and in reply to state that owing to the present conditions of business it is impossible to indulge in anything of the kind at this time. From the political circular you saw proper to inclose in a business letter to me, I judge you are an advocate of our present financial policy of a "single gold standard." If you have no remedy to offer for the present stagnation in all kinds of business, and wish we retailers to continue, with no assurance of a change in the future for better times, it will be impossible for us to save anything from our business to assist you in the way of advertising. I am not a politician, but as a business man it appears to me that some remedy must be offered to relieve us from our present crippled conditions. My business is largely dependent upon what is so appropriately termed "the producers of wealth" that until a change in some way is enacted to increase the amount of the currency in practical circulation, whereby the class of people referred to may be able to sell at a profit that which they produce, I cannot expect them to increase their purchases from me until this condition is realized. I am forcibly prohibited from assisting you in your business in the manner you suggest. It is very apparent to my mind that your success like mine is directly dependent upon the condition of the money market, which so many business men in our larger cities to overlook. I have not the honor of your acquaintance, but it will give me much pleasure, indeed, to review with you on the fourth of next March the inauguration of Hon. William Jennings Bryan as President of the United States. Yours very truly, ROBT. N. HARPER.
